MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESIDENT:

Mercer University has a new law building. It is on Coleman Hill and is a replica, five times larger, of Independence Hall. It was built as a southern headquarters for Insurance Company of North America, and we were able to purchase it from that company. It is, I think, the finest law school facility in America.

We would like to dedicate it on a Saturday in October or early November. It would be historic for Mercer and for our region to have you and the Chief Justice participate in the dedication.

My hope is to get the Chief Justice after you have accepted. I would hope that you would offer him a ride down there and even back unless you wanted to spend the night in Plains.

I have never asked you to make a speech before, but this is one that is personal.

Respectfully,

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

SCHEDULE PROPOSAL
DATE: June 28, 1978
FROM: Zbigniew Brzezinski W
VIA: Phil Wise

MEETING: Call on you by delegation from United Nations Association Economic Policy Council, headed by Robert O. Anderson and Governor William Scranton.

DATE: Week of July 10th or as soon as convenient thereafter.

PURPOSE: An opportunity to reaffirm your commitment to the UN, to reinforce your desire to give the UN more attention and support in the conduct of U.S. foreign relations, to attract the useful support of influential individuals, to publicly receive a report which may be helpful in overcoming Congressional and private sector resistance to certain policies, and show support for an organization which is consistently helpful to us, one of the most prominent foreign policy groups in the country, and is sufficiently unique to be distinguished from other study groups craving Presidential attention.

FORMAT: Meeting in the Oval Office. List of participants attached. Expected length of participation: approximately 15 minutes.

CABINET PARTICIPATION: None

SPEECH MATERIAL Talking Points, abbreviated copy of Council's Report.

PRESS COVERAGE: Full press (this would be an appropriate occasion to mention the Bonn Summit on eve of your departure)

STAFF: Zbigniew Brzezinski

RECOMMEND: NSC, State

OPPOSED: None

PREVIOUS PARTICIPATION:

Although no personal presentation to the President has been undertaken regarding any previous UNA report, this study is considered to merit Presidential attention. It is the first of a series of studies on this subject by what will be a relatively permanent council of very influential people.

BACKGROUND:

The Council, a collection of influential labor and business leaders, with a sprinkling of academics, has finished the first of what will be a series of reports on "the global economic challenge." In order to present this report to you, discuss it briefly, hopefully secure your endorsement that the idea of such reports is desirable, the Council wishes to send a delegation of 12 to meet with you for fifteen minutes. This first report is generally within the mainstream of current U.S. thinking on international economic policy, and generally recommends what this Administration would do if it were not for political constraints and conflicting domestic priorities.
